Excerpts from Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday - 26 February 1959

Talked with Kenneth BeLieu, Staff Director of the Senate Space Committee. It should be remembered that Mr. BeLieu in fact functions as Staff Director for the Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee and is so looked to by Senator Johnson. He was informed that the Director had been in contact with Mr. Wiesl to furnish him certain information about recent Soviet ICBM tests. That information was also made available to Mr. BeLieu. Mr. BeLieu indicated that it is very likely that the Agency will be called upon to appear before the Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee and the Space Committee to complete the presentation started on 4 February.

Talked with Boyd Crawford, House Committee on Foreign Affairs, who had requested comments because of the extreme interest shown by certain members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee in THE PROGRESSIVE article by Charles Edmundson. In view of the possible claim to jurisdiction by the Wayne Hays Subcommittee on State Department Organization and Liaison with CIA, Mr. Crawford wished to alert us to this interest. I explained to Mr. Crawford in general terms the functions of the Agency including the clandestine services. Specifically I pointed out the policy controls in the field of covert operations. To this degree Mr. Crawford was impressed with the inaccuracy of the article. No comments were made on the specific points of the article. Mr. Crawford believed that by discussing this situation with the Chairman and with Wayne Hays probably no action would be forthcoming. I suggested to Mr. Crawford that if some action were desired then the Chairman might wish to discuss the matter personally with the DCI.

Mr. Marcy stated that the Senator was most anxious to receive ideas. As an example Marcy queried why could not this country furnish on an open basis technical advice to the political parties of other countries to enable them to organize and function more efficiently to counter the instructed and guided Communist Party. It was even suggested that the Democratic Party or possibly the Democratic and Republican parties jointly could run a technical assistance program in this regard. These ideas were not put forth as finished ideas but solely for the purpose of stimulating thought in this general area. Mr. Marcy stated that a similar letter to that received by the Agency had gone forward to ICA and they had received a polite reply to the effect that this was not their concern.
